

Module Code	AH-4316
Module Title	International Organisations and Global Governance
Degree/Diploma	Bachelor of Arts (History and International Studies)
Type of Module	Major Option
Modular Credits	4	Total Student Workload	8 hours/week
		Contact Hours	4 hours/week
Prerequisite	None
Anti-requisite	None
Aims This module aims to provide insights to the workings of key international organisations and the challenges they face in effecting better global governance. The module will discuss various theories on international organisations as well as examine efforts by non-state and state actors to improve governance.
Learning Outcomes On successful completion of this module, a student will be expected to be able to:
Lower order:	10%	- Describe the history and theories of international organisations and governance
Middle order:	10%	- Understand the many aspects or mandate of various international organisations and how these organisations relate to issue of global governance
Higher order:	80%	- Evaluate to various issues that non-state actors face in designing better global governance. - Appraise the various issues facing states and non-state actors in negotiating global governance - Argue the merits and demerits of existing paradigms on global governance and the role of state and non-state actors - Recommend policy prescriptions of global governance taking into considerations new developments in international security and globalisation.
Module Contents - Explaining different roles of International Organisations - Explaining global governance - The International Law - Theories governing International Organisations and global governance - Governance and the diffusion of power - The United Nations and International Institutions - Regional Organisations (EU, APEC, ASEAN etc.) Transnational Corporations and Global Governance - Global governance and development - Global governance and environment Global governance and trade
Assessment	Formative Assessment	Weekly assessment and feedback
	Summative Assessment	Examination:None
		Coursework: 100%
		2 Class tests (25% each) Individual Presentation (20%) 1 Individual written assignment (30%)	