

Module code	AW-3306
Module Title	Globalization and Development
Degree/Diploma	Bachelor of Arts (Geography, Environment and Development Studies)
Type of Module	Major Option/Breadth
Modular Credits	4	Total student workload	8 hours/week
		Contact hours	4 hours/week
Prerequisite	None
Anti-requisite	None
Aims
To provide an introduction to the globalization process and the relationship between the globalization process and development. This module is designed to further grapple with a number of unresolved debates regarding globalization and development such as why are some countries richer than others? Can poor countries 'catch up'? Is globalization reducing or increasing ethnic conflict? Is the internationalization of finance making the world more stable or more vulnerable? Is the global economy destroying or saving the planet?
Learning Outcomes:
On successful completion of this module, a student will be expected to be able to:
Lower order :	30%	- Understand basic principles, theories and descriptive approach
Middle order :	40%	- Analyse various examples from different part of the world
Higher order:	30%	- Carry out result analysis - Work independently and collaborate with fellow students and staff.
Module Contents
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An introduction to the history and contemporary issues of globalization • Concept and emergence of globalization and development, • Rethinking development: different perspectives • Globalization and equality or inequality debate • Globalization and disparity between developed-underdeveloped nations • Governance issues and the ways in which it impinges on various development • Responses to globalization: policies re-orientation • Globalization and sustainable development
Assessment	Formative assessment	Weekly discussion will be used to test and to give feedback for their learning.
	Summative assessment	Examination: 50% Coursework: 50% - Midterm test (10%) - Presentation (10%) - Final paper (15%) - Reaction paper (8%) - Class debate (7%)	