FASS General Office

This year, we bid farewell to several esteemed colleagues who have contributed immensely to the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS). Their dedication and warmth have left a lasting impact, inspiring students and staff alike.

To our departing team members: thank you for your hard work and invaluable contributions. You will always have a special place in the FASS family, and we wish you all the best in your future endeavours.

WELCOME OUR NEWEST FACULTY MEMBERS

Professor
Dr Fredolin Tangang

With over 37 years in climate science, Professor Dr Fredolin made landmark contributions through pioneering ENSO forecasting, serving as Vice-Chair for IPCC Working Group I, and establishing CORDEX Southeast Asia to advance regional climate modelling. He has shaped academic and policy landscapes as a Full Professor for 15 years at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and later as a Climate Policy Strategist at Bank Negara Malaysia. A Fellow of the Academy of Sciences Malaysia, he has authored over 150 publications, led 30+ research projects, and was awarded the prestigious 2022 Anugerah Akademik Negara for Best Scientific Publication.

Dr Syahwal Nizam Hj Yani
Assistant Lecturer

Dr Syahwal holds a Bachelor's degree, a Master's degree in Malay Literature, and a Doctor of Philosophy in Malay Literature from Universiti Brunei Darussalam.

Dr Syahwal has received multiple accolades for his creative writing and several awards from Bahana Essay Writing Competitions by the Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka and the Pangsura Journal Writing Competitions.

Dr Amalina bte Abdul Khalid
Assistant Lecturer

Dr Amalina holds a PhD in Social and Behavioural Science, specialising in Tourism, from Universiti Malaya. Her doctoral research focused on the touristification of Brunei's water village. Her passion for tourism was ignited during her Master's program in Anthropology of Travel, Tourism, and Pilgrimage at the School of Oriental and African Studies in London. Dr Amalina is also an alumna of Universiti Brunei Darussalam, where she earned her BA in Sociology-Anthropology.

FEATURES

WORLD'S TOP 2% SCIENTISTS 2023

Dr Hannah Ho Ming Yit

Dr Hannah, Assistant Professor at the English Studies Programme, became the only local academic from UBD acknowledged as World's Top 2% Scientists 2023, which featured 15 other scholars.

With expertise in Southeast Asian Literature and Diaspora and Globalisation studies, her research interests include Bruneian literature, focusing on mental health representations and Chinese literary discourse in contemporary world.

Collaborating with international academic, Dr Hannah will publish a co-edited volume, "Transnational Southeast Asia: Communities, Contestations and Cultures" with Springer in 2025.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Professor Ampuan Dr Haji Ibrahim bin Haji Tengah

Professor Ampuan Dr Haji Ibrahim recently honoured with the Anugerah Buku Negara 2024 - Tokoh Cendekiawan Sepanjang Zaman (Lifetime Achievement Award).

The prestigious recognition by the Professional Evaluation Panel is a testament of his lifelong dedication and remarkable contributions to the world of knowledge and scholarship.

In November 2024, Professor Ampuan Dr Haji Ibrahim also launched a new book, "Syair Kisah Negeri Brunei" published by Pusat Sejarah Brunei, adding to his impressive list of publications in Malay literary scene.

INTI INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITI RESEARCH FELLOW

Dr Siti Mazidah Mohamad

Dr Siti Mazidah, Assistant Professor at the Geography, Environment, and Development Programme, has been appointed a Research Fellow at INTI International University, Malaysia. In this role, she will be involved in research symposiums, academic conferences, and guest lectures at INTI.

Dr Siti Mazidah's primary research interests lie at the intersection of the geographies of young people, digital media and popular culture, and religion.

As part of her academic endeavours, she will publish a book titled "Mediated Muslim Cosmopolitanism: New Media and Popular Culture Engagements in Brunei and Malaysia" with Routledge in 2025.

SEA JUNCTION GRANT RECIPIENT

Dr Maria Carinnes Alejandria

Dr Alejandria, Assistant Professor at the Sociology and Anthropology Programme, has been awarded the significant grant by the Foundation for Southeast Asia Studies (SEA Junction) for her innovative project, "Empowering Urban Communities: A Resilience Toolkit for Inclusive Disaster Preparedness and Collaborative Hazards Management in Brunei, Indonesia, Malaysia, and the Philippines (BIMP)".

This project is set to revolutionise disaster resilience and preparedness across Southeast Asia.

To date, Dr Alejandria has led numerous research projects related to social health, disaster resilience, and food security that were funded by World Health Organization, Brown University, UNDP, UNAIDS, the Philippine's Department of Science and Technology, and the National Research Council of the Philippines.

PROFESSOR WILLIAM DAVIE

Professor Dr William Davie, an Eminent Visiting Professor from the University of Louisiana at Lafayette, delivered two engaging seminars at FASS.

In “Chaos and Credibility: Media Challenges in a VUCA World”, he discussed the need for media literacy amid global volatility and uncertainty.

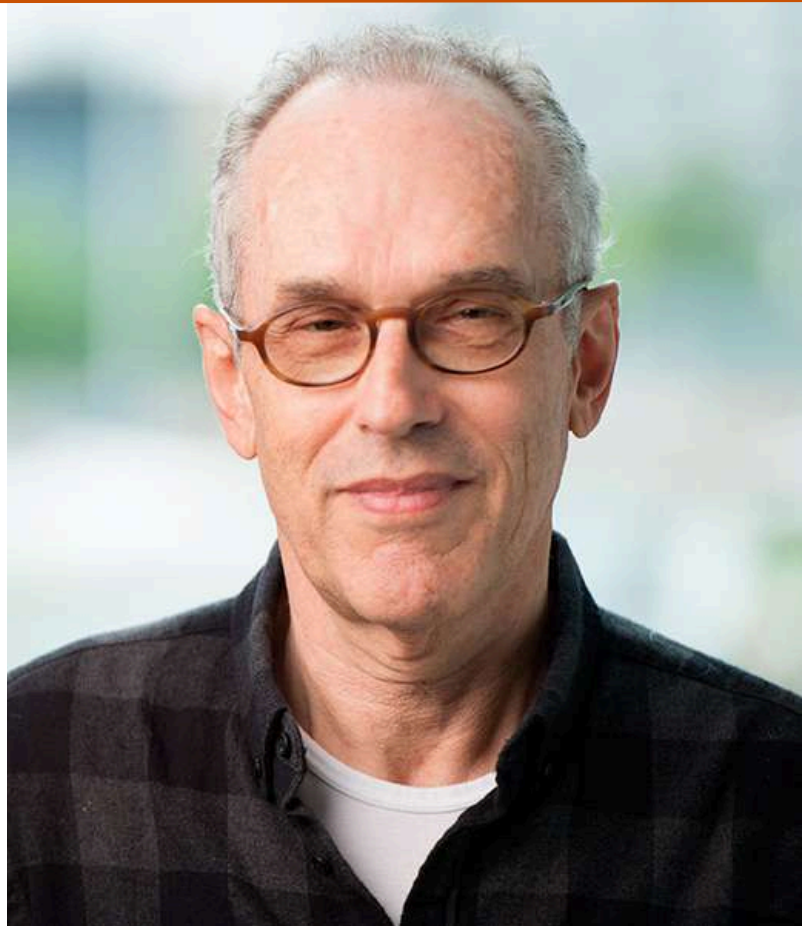

His second seminar, “Media Assistance Programs: Sources and Outcomes,” focused on funding and training for journalists and highlighted the importance of balancing media support with cultural autonomy.

PROFESSOR WILLEM VAN SCHENDEL

Professor Dr Willem van Schendel, an Emeritus Professor from the University of Amsterdam, facilitated the Graduate Research Colloquium on “Recent Trends and Methodologies in Asian Studies: A View from Anthropology and History”, offering our graduate students valuable perspectives.

He also delivered a seminar on “Who Needs ‘More-than-Human’ Social Science”, encouraging innovative approaches to social science research.

During his visit, he explored Brunei’s National Archive and Institute for Biodiversity and Environmental Research at UBD, deepening his connection with the region’s historical and environmental heritage.

Deans from FASS and the School of Creative Industry Management and Performing Arts, Universiti Utara Malaysia, came together in a warm and friendly meeting to discuss future collaborations.

FASS received a courtesy visit from Sunan Gunung Djati State Islamic University Bandung, Indonesia. The visit from the Islamic Communication and Broadcasting Program was led by Dr. Hj Imron Rosyidi.

Academics from the Geography, Environment and Development, and the Sociology and Anthropology programmes shared their expertise with visitors from Tokyo University of Agriculture and Technology (TUAT).

FASS welcomed visitors from NIE Singapore. Dr Amalina led an insightful heritage trail around Kampong Ayer, while Dr Syahwal captivated everyone with his enriching lecture on Bruneian folklore.

FASS ADVANCES SUSTAINABILITY THROUGH RESEARCH AND COLLABORATION

FASS participated in the launch of the Sustainability Initiative by the Ministry of Health, Brunei and the Melayu Islam Beraja (MIB) Day celebration, showcasing its commitment to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). At the Sustainability Initiative, FASS highlighted six collaborative projects and 20 publications (2021–2024) focused on SDG 13 (Climate Action).

Meanwhile, at the MIB Day, FASS exhibited research aligning with SDGs 11 (Sustainable Cities and Communities) and 15 (Life on Land) across seven programmes.

These efforts reflect the faculty's dedication to integrating local values with global sustainability goals. FASS continues to contribute efforts to the SDGs through research, publications, and collaborations.

FASS STUDENTS SHINE AT PROFESSOR VICTOR KING PRIZE

Three recent graduates from FASS were recognised at the Professor Victor King Prize in Borneo Studies Prize Giving Session. These students completed their Final Year Projects for the 2022-2023 academic year.

The grand prize was awarded to Mr Danial Hakim bin Haji Sufian (Sociology and Anthropology) for his research titled, 'Beyond the Noise: An Exploration of the Brunei Metal Scene'. He was supervised by Associate Professor Liam C. Kelley. In addition to receiving a monetary award, Mr Danial Hakim's final year project will be published in the Institute of Asian Studies (IAS) Working Paper series.

Two honourable mentions were presented to: Ms Ili Arina binti Zainal (English Studies) for her research on 'Urang versus Orang: An Investigation into the Frequency of Bruneian Students' Use of Standard Malay', supervised by Dr Paul Deyuan He, and Ms Nur Umairah Imanina binti Salleh (Sociology and Anthropology) for her research titled 'From Art Enthusiasts to Nation-Builders: Exploring the Contributions of Artists in Nation-Building', supervised by Dr Muhammad Arafat bin Mohamad.

FASS CELEBRATES NATIONAL DAY

FASS joined the nation in celebrating Brunei Darussalam's National Day, reflecting on the country's rich heritage, unity, and progress.

The occasion served as a reminder of the collective achievements and aspirations for a brighter future, while we cherish the values that define Brunei's unique identity.

FASS CELEBRATES MENTAL HEALTH DAY AND BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

To commemorate both World Mental Health Day and Breast Cancer Awareness Month, FASS students and staff wore green and pink.

FASS acknowledge these important causes while together promote well-being, reduce stigma, and encourage early detection and support.

Together, we wish to foster a caring and resilient environment for all.

Festival Sastera 2024, organised by UBD's Malay Literature Programme, explored the theme "Sastera Digital: Inspirasi di Hujung Jari" (Digital Literature: Inspiration at Your Fingertips). The festival reinforced UBD's commitment to ensuring the relevance of Bruneian and regional literary heritage in the digital era.

The event showcased the transformative impact of digital platforms on literary practices, emphasising their role in preserving and innovating Malay literature.

Workshops, discussions, and performances explored how digital tools foster creativity and expand access to both traditional and contemporary stories.

FASS ACADEMICS AND POSTGRADUATES PARTICIPATE IN BRUNEI FORUM 2024

FASS academic staff, including Mr Gabriel Yit Vui Yong, Dr Siti Mazidah Hj Mohamad, Dr Asmali Sulaiman, and Dr Najib Noorashid, along with postgraduate students, actively engaged in the Brunei Forum 2024, held on 26–27 February at the Senate Room, Chancellor Hall, UBD.

Organised by the Academy of Brunei Studies (APB), the forum, themed “Brunei Today and Over the Next Thirty Years,” offered a dynamic platform for discussions on Brunei’s present and future, aligning with Wawasan Brunei 2035.

Notable contributions included a special talk by FASS lecturer Gabriel Yit Vui Yong, who presented the “Blue Urbanism Strategy to Climate Adaptation” during a session on Economics and Wawasan.

The forum also featured prominent speakers from academia, business, NGOs, and government, as well as 15 parallel sessions exploring themes such as cultural development, youth, sustainability, and entrepreneurship.

FASS ACADEMICS AT THE NATIONAL TEACHER’S DAY CONFERENCE

FASS academics Dr Najib Noorashid, Dr Mayyer Ling, and Dk Dr Nur Raihan Pg Hj Mohamad presented their research on “‘Blessings in Disguise’: Exploring Motivations, Challenges, and Resilience among Postgraduate Students at Higher Education in Brunei Darussalam” at the Teacher's Day Conference.

The study draws inspiration from the FASS Research Colloquium earlier this year and highlights key insights into the postgraduate experience.

INTRODUCTION OF UN TOURISM INSIGHTS AND TRENDS ON EDUCATION AND SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

FASS together with the United Nations's Tourism and Tourism Development Department from the Ministry of Primary Resources and Tourism hosted a special lecture on the "Introduction of UN Tourism Insights and Trends on Education and Sustainable Tourism".

The lecture was delivered by Mr Harry Hwang and Mr Yang Li, UN representatives and moderated by Dr Shirley Chin from FASS.

FASS INVOLVEMENT AT 19TH ASEAN & 9TH ASEAN + 3 YOUTH CULTURAL FORUM

FASS played a key role in the cultural exchange at the 19th ASEAN & 9th ASEAN+3 Youth Cultural Forum (AYCF 2024), where members of the Dance Culture Club showcased their talent with performances of 'Jipin Laila Sembah', 'Selendang Kipas', and 'Joget Hati Tertawan' during the welcoming night. The performances made for an unforgettable evening, celebrating Bruneian dance traditions.

FASS contributed to the event through various cultural workshops, including theatre, dance, silat, and pantun, which were organised for international delegates.

These activities played a significant part in the closing ceremony of the AYCF 2024, highlighting the rich cultural heritage of Brunei while fostering closer regional ties through shared experiences.

FASS ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS IN BLUE ECONOMY RESEARCH

In 2024, an academic journey into the “blue economy” marked significant milestones for a Mr Izni Azrein Noor Azalie specialising in development studies. Having begun his career in 2008 with studies on the impact of development on communities, his focus shifted towards blue economy policies, alongside interests in cultural and creative economies and halal industries. This pivot was reinforced through three trips to China, fostering collaboration and advancing regional knowledge-sharing efforts.

The first trip, from 24–30 March 2024, involved participation in the 3rd Training Seminar on Blue Economy Development Capacity-building in Haikou, China. Organised by the China Institute for Reform and Development (CIRD), the programme explored marine resource development through advanced green and blue technologies. Mr Izni Azrein alongside other participants, including policymakers and industrial experts from ASEAN member states, engaged in lectures, industrial site visits, and knowledge-sharing sessions. Topics such as deep-sea cages, blue carbon, and mangrove potentials were discussed with relevance to Brunei’s development.

The second trip, from 18–20 May 2024, featured two conferences: the Forum on China-ASEAN Cooperation in Blue Economy and the 2024 RCEP Media and Think Tank Forum. Representing Universiti Brunei Darussalam (UBD), Mr Izni Azrein delivered presentations on Brunei’s maritime economic cluster and the role of media in RCEP development. The conferences concluded with commitments to expand the RCEP Think Tank Network.

The final trip, from 23–27 September 2024, included workshops in Xiamen and Beijing, focusing on maritime spatial planning and sustainability. Collaborative efforts resulted in a joint research proposal on marine resource management submitted to China’s funding body.

Mr Izni Azrein’s year concluded with several papers under review for publication, appointments as research associate with Chinese institutions, and plans for further collaborations in 2025.

SPECTRUM UNVEIL: THE DESIGN AND CREATIVE INDUSTRY GRADUATION EXHIBITION 2024

UBD came alive with creativity and innovation during the Design and Creative Industry Graduation Exhibition, themed Spectrum Unveil. Held at the Right Wing of the Chancellor Hall, the event drew over 1,000 visitors, showcased the immense talent of UBD's graduating cohort, and celebrated their diverse creative accomplishments.

The exhibition, known for its evolving annual themes, was centered on “unveiling” the creative visions of emerging talents this year. Nine distinct clusters reflected the breadth of disciplines within the program:

The exhibition's success went beyond its displays. Gallery talks offered audiences insights into the graduates' creative processes, while docuseries - short documentaries - provided a deeper look at their personal journeys and challenges. A series of podcasts complemented the exhibition, featuring in-depth discussions with the students and industry professionals.

Those looking to take a piece of the exhibition home could purchase various merchandise reflecting the students' creativity and innovation. The event's success was made possible by the support of sponsors and partners:

- Sponsors: Folec, D'Sunlit, Aewon Brunei
- Marketing Partners: Three Light Café, Mix Media
- Merchandising Partner: Printmartz Advertising
- Media Partner: Pelangi FM
- Supporters: Rainfresh, New Wave Films

Their contributions ensured that the exhibition reached a wide audience and provided an exceptional platform for the graduating students.

As the 2024 exhibition drew to a close, anticipation began to build for next year's event, themed Spectrum Stellar. The upcoming exhibition promises to take creativity to new heights, continuing the tradition of innovation and inspiration.

FASS AT THE 8TH PERTEMUAN SASTERAWAN BRUNEI (PSB8)

The 8th Pertemuan Sasterawan Brunei (PSB8), themed “Falsafah Negara Melayu Islam Beraja dalam Sastera: Sumbangan Ke Arah Mencapai Wawasan Brunei 2035”, featured 16 insightful papers, including a keynote by Yang Berhormat Pehin Datu Seri Maharaja Dato Paduka Seri Setia (Dr) Ustaz Haji Awang Abdul Aziz bin Juned (Adi Rumi) and an opening speech by Professor Ampuan Haji Brahim bin Haji Tengah.

FASS academics:

- Dr Kathrina DP Hj Mohd Daud presented, “Identiti Transnasional dan Keterlihatan Antarabangsa dalam Novel Anglophone Kontemporari Brunei” (Transnational Identity and International Visibility in Contemporary Anglophone Brunei Novels)
- Dr Maslin bin Hj Jukim/Jukin presented, “Melayu Islam Beraja dalam Cerita Lisan Brunei” (Malay Islamic Monarchy in Brunei Oral Stories)
- Dr Mohammed Zefri Ariff presented, “Fitrah Citra Kenegaraan dalam Pulang Kumbali Pulang” (The Essence of National Identity in Pulang Kumbali Pulang)
- Dr Sarah Hanaa Haji Ahmad Ghazali presented, “Ekokritik dan Sastera Dusun Brunei” (Ecocriticism and Dusun Literature of Brunei)
- Dr Syahwal Nizam Haji Yani presented, “Analisis Antologi Sajak Kapal Kertas” (An Analysis of the Poetry Anthology Kapal Kertas: Tracing the Philosophy of Malay Islamic Monarchy in the Poems of Young Bruneian Writers)

Two Masters students from the Malay Literature programme, Awangku Muhammad Nur Safiuddin bin Pengiran Haji Harun and Abd. Hafiz bin Hasrin also contributed their research titled, “Dari Lisan ke Al: Transformasi Sastera dalam Pengaplikasian Teknologi Pintar” (From Oral to artificial intelligence: Literary Transformation in the Application of Smart Technology) and “Unsur-unsur Ketatanegaraan dalam Surat-surat Kemerdekaan” (Elements of Statehood in Letters of Independence) respectively.

At the PSB8, Dr Maslin, Dr Zefri, and Dr Syahwal also served as panelists, enriching the discussions with their expertise. The two-day event was held at Balai Sarmayuda Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka, Berakas, Negara Brunei Darussalam.

FOUR UBD STUDENT FILMS SHINE AT MALAYSIA'S LONGEST-RUNNING SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

The 20th Mini Film Festival (MFF) held in Sarawak, Malaysia, featured a special programme titled 'Through Bruneian Eyes: Films that Speak Our Stories', highlighting seven Bruneian short films with four crafted by UBD Design and Creative Industries (DCI) major students.

The featured UBD films include Iyaan Wears a Hat by Natasya Jazmeena, Jasa by Azhar Khir, Love's Detour: From Crush to Crash by Dzul Iskandar, and Menguyung Masa by Ridhwan Sabri.

Festival director, Yow Chong Lee lauded the new Borneo Film category for fostering connections among filmmakers from Sarawak, Sabah, Brunei, and Kalimantan. Sponsored by MFF, UBD students Dzul Iskandar and Ridhwan Sabri will also engage with local and Kalimantan filmmakers, sharing creative experiences.

This programme is curated by Bruneian filmmaker Tara Esa, a DCI student at UNIMAS, who aims to highlight Brunei's cultural narratives and celebrate female directors' creative achievements.

FASS STUDENTS CHAMPION BAHANA DBP 2023 SHORT STORY AND LITERARY CRITICISM WRITING COMPETITION

FASS Malay Literature undergraduates won 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in the Bahana DBP 2023 Short Story and Literary Criticism Writing Competition.

The competition was held in conjunction with the Bulan Bahasa celebration and was open to Brunei Darussalam citizens and residents aged 18 and above.

Winners received plaques, cash prizes, and participation certificates.
