ENGAGING MODERN BRUNEI

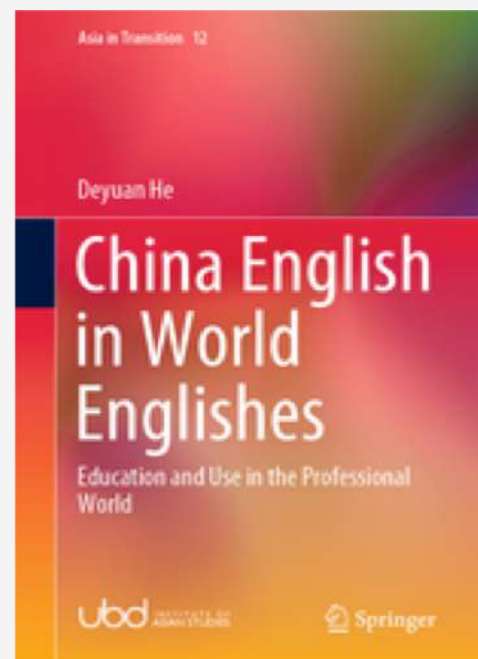

BY DR HANNAH HO
AND DR DAVID DETERDING

A new volume entitled 'Engaging Modern Brunei: Research on Language, Literature and Culture', has been in the works over the course of 2020, and is on track to be published in 2021. The book balances its three interrelated themes by covering an array of topics examined by various FASS academics, and aims to enrich the scholarly critical scene in Brunei Darussalam.

CHINA ENGLISH IN WORLD ENGLISHES

BY DR PAUL DEYUAN HE

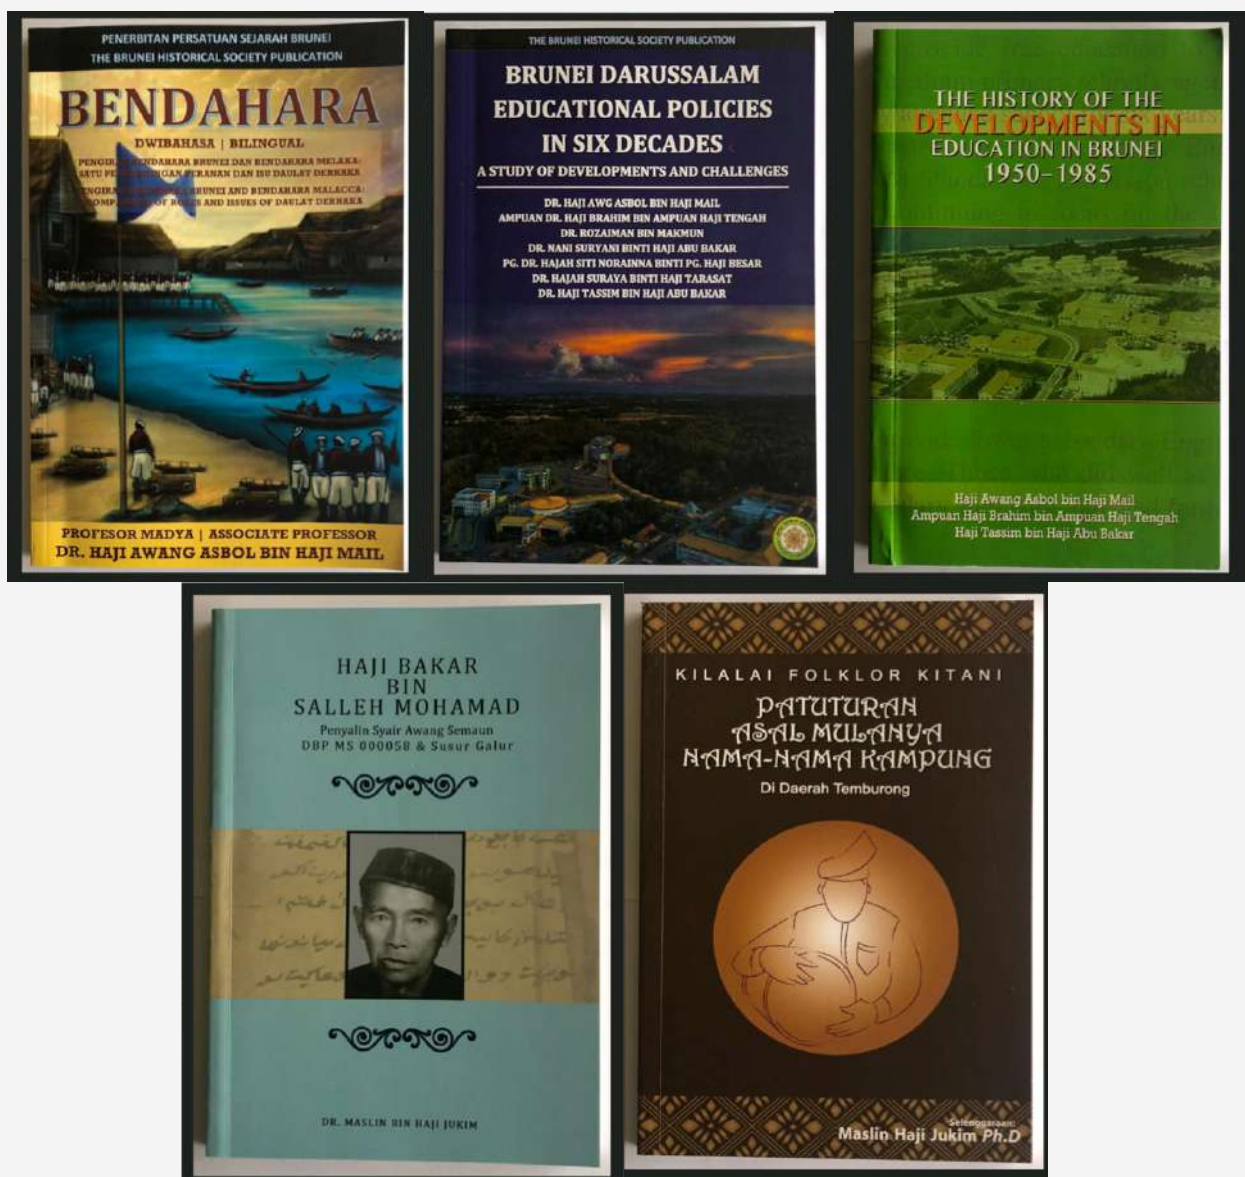

As the first English-language book on China English and its professional use, Dr Paul Deyuan He's new SCOPUS-indexed monograph, 'China English in World Englishes', is Volume 12 of the "Asia in Transition" Springer book series and fills the gap in world Englishes studies in terms of the pedagogic implications of China English and its use in China's workplace.

OTHER PUBLISHED WORKS

In 2020, there were other noteworthy volumes published by various FASS academics in different fields. These books examined diverse topics such as educational policy in Brunei, the history of educational development in Brunei, and the origin of village names in the Temburong district.

Below we feature works from Dr Hj Awang Asbol Haji Mail, Associate Professor of Historical and International Studies; Ampuan Dr Hj Brahim Ampuan Hj Tengah, Associate Professor of Malay Literature; and Dr Maslin Haji Jukim, Lecturer of Malay Literature.

BOOK CHAPTERS IN 2020

Shown above are a few of the books to which our FASS academics contributed some informative chapters. Topics range from discussions on Brunei English, research ethics from a Malay-Muslim perspective, the celebrification of influencers by post-modern Malay-Muslim women, and various discussions on narratives, literature and fiction.

Contributors included Dr James McLellan, Dr Haji Noor Azam OKMB Hj Othman, Dr Siti Mazidah Haji Mohamad, Dr Meredian Alam, Dr Hannah Ho, Dr Kathrina Mohd Daud, and Dr Rinni Amran.
