A student may read up to a maximum of 40 MC of Level 1000 modules. A maximum of 40 MC of Level 1000 modules will count towards credit accumulation of 140 MC in order to graduate.

Students are required to undertake two semesters of the Discovery Year Programme. For the Study Abroad Programme (SAP), the MC are calculated per module taken and they are not counted towards GPA and cGPA calculations. However, some modules may be counted towards the major. Internship, Community Outreach Programme and Innovation/Incubation Projects each have a value of 16 MC for one semester.

A student must have completed a minimum of 24 MC of Level 4000 modules to graduate.

The 16 MC breadth requirement outside the faculty and the 4 MC breadth module requirement from the other group of degrees as indicated in Regulation 2.3 and Regulation 2.4 of the UBD Generation Next Undergraduate Degree Rules and Regulations August 2013 document shall not apply for this combined major.

8.3.2. Double Major

Students who wish to take a Double Major degree within FASS (by the Dean's recommendation) must successfully complete a minimum of 52 MC in each of two Major programmes. This will allow for the Compulsory Breadth Modules (16 MC) and the Discovery Year (32 MC, some of which may be counted towards their major), and adding up to 140 MC minimum in order to graduate. Students must complete their study within a maximum of 6 years.

8.3.3. Double Degree

Students may opt to major in two subjects from two different faculties contingent upon recommendation by the Dean. To qualify, a student will need to have achieved a minimum cGPA of 3.5 for their first year of study. Eligible and intending students must apply to do a Double Degree programme by the end of their second semester.

A Double Degree student will need to complete the Compulsory Breadth modules (16 MC) and the Discovery year component (32 MC, some of which may be counted towards their major).

Note that students wishing to take up a Double Degree in FASS and in another faculty will need to satisfy the minimum requirement for FASS' B.A in Design and Creative Industries (92 MC) and will be subject to the minimum requirement of the other faculty for the Second Degree. Students must complete their study within a maximum 7 years.

A student from outside FASS wishing to do one of his or her Double Degrees in FASS will be required to successfully complete a minimum of 92 MC in the FASS B.A. in Design and Creative Industries, and will be subject to FASS B. Arts Degree Rules and Regulations as far as the Major is concerned. Students must complete their study within a maximum 7 years.

If the student is a UBDSBE Major wanting to take a FASS' B.A in Design and Creative Industries as the second degree, he/she will be exempt from taking the compulsory breadth module from FOS, IHS or FIT. A candidate from FOS, IHS or FIT is exempt from the compulsory breadth requirement of 4 MC in FASS.
